

The French Bulldog Club of England

Point of Contact List

The French Bulldog Club of England "Point of Contact List" objective:

To offer impartial advice to potential puppy purchasers or anybody expressing a healthy interest in the breed. Advisors are a combination of both Breeders and people who do not actively breed, yet possess a wealth of knowledge from their involvement in the French Bulldog world.

All Advisors listed below meet the clubs criteria by conforming to the following Requirements:

- A member of the French Bulldog Club of England
- An active participant in Club & Breed events/activities
- Comprehensive knowledge of breed history and the breed standard
- A good understanding of current health issues & health testing
- Knowledge of good breeding practices & responsible ownership
- Offer sound advice on diet, general care, wellbeing, exercise & socialization
- Promote the French Bulldog Club of England and actively encourage new members and event participation
- Abide by the Kennel Club and French Bulldog Club of England Code of Ethics & The Breeders Charter
- A member of the KC Accredited Breeder Scheme or practice the same requirements by:
 - ✓ Permanent identification of puppies by microchip or tattoo
 - ✓ Providing Sales Contracts and clearly explain any breeding or export restrictions
 - ✓ Give new puppy owners a comprehensive diet, care, worming & advice sheet
 - ✓ Provide assistance with the re-homing of, or accept the return of a dog in the event the owner can no longer provide a safe and suitable home
 - ✓ Give guidance and ongoing support to new puppy owners
- If not already, proactively seeking to carry out current health testing on breeding dogs

This symbol next to an Advisors name indicates a Breeder.

Please Note: Most breeders on average have one litter per year (or every second year) so this symbol does not indicate they have puppies immediately available.
