

FRENCH BULLDOG CLUB OF ENGLAND

GENERAL CODE OF ETHICS

The aim of the French Bulldog Club of England is to promote and safeguard the well being of the breed.

The welfare of all French Bulldogs must be the Member's first concern.

All members of The French Bulldog Club of England undertake to abide by its general Code of Ethics

1. Will properly house, feed, water and exercise all dogs under their care and arrange for appropriate veterinary attention if and when required.
2. Will agree without reservation that any veterinary surgeon, who performs an operation on any of their dogs which alters the natural conformation of the animal, or who carries out a caesarean section on a bitch, may report such operations to the Kennel Club.
3. Will agree that no healthy puppy will be culled. Puppies which may not conform to the Breed Standard should be placed in suitable homes.
4. Will abide by all aspects of the Animal Welfare Act
5. Will not create demand for, nor supply, puppies that have been docked illegally.
6. Will agree not to breed from a dog or bitch which could be in any way harmful to the dog or to the breed.
7. Will not allow any of their dogs to roam at large or to cause a nuisance to neighbours or those carrying out official duties.
8. Will ensure that their dogs shall wear properly tagged collars and shall be kept fully leashed or under effective control when away from home
9. Will clean up after their dogs in public places or anywhere their dogs are being exhibited.
10. Will only sell dogs where there is a reasonable expectation of a happy and healthy life and will help with the re-homing of a dog if the initial circumstances change.
11. Will supply written details of all dietary requirements and give guidance concerning responsible ownership when placing dogs in a new home.

- 12 Will ensure that all relevant Kennel Club documents are provided to the new owner when selling or transferring a dog, and will agree ,in writing , to forward any relevant documents at the earliest opportunity, if not immediately available.
- 13 Will not sell any dog to commercial wholesalers, retail pet dealers or directly or indirectly allow dogs to be given as a prize or donation in a competition of any kind. Will not sell by sale or auction Kennel Club registration certificates as stand alone items (not accompanying a dog)
14. They will not knowingly misrepresent the characteristics of the breed nor falsely advertise dogs or mislead any person regarding the quality of the dog..
- 15 .Due care and consideration must be given to the physical and mental welfare, of any dog when considering exporting. If a dog is to be sold overseas, members should obtain references from a suitable person, for example a veterinarian, who has knowledge of the prospective owner, or on personal recommendation. Members should only export dogs to countries where there are controls on breeding and selling dogs, and where there are effective animal protection laws similar to those in the UK.
16. They will behave in a suitable manner at any organised canine event, un-sportsmanlike behaviour reflects adversely on the Club and it's good name and will not be tolerated.
17. They will not deliberately degrade any judge, owner or breeder, or their dogs.
18. They will abide by the French Bulldog Club of England 'Breeders Charter' should they engage in the breeding of French Bulldogs be it male or female.

Breach of these provisions may result in expulsion from club membership, and/or disciplinary action by the Kennel Club and/or reporting to the relevant authorities for legal action, as appropriate.
